IMPORTANT INFORMATION

- Registrations are due by March 21, 2008. Please send registration to Steve & Veva Ruggles (address is on the registration form). Registration form can be found on wksawana.org.
- FOR 2008 – We will be running only Division 2 & 3 Teams again this year.
- Requirements for Coaches:
 - Two coaches per team maximum. Sparks teams may be coached by any leader. T&T girl's team should be coached by women. T&T boy's team should be coached by men.
 - Each coach must attend a training session every three years. Since 2007 was mandatory training, most coaches will not need to attend a training session until 2010. NEW coaches (both Sparks and T&T) need to attend one training session before the event. Two regional training sessions have been set up for training:
 - 1/26 – 10:00 am – Faith Bible Baptist Church in Valley Center
 - 1/28 – 7:00 pm – Faith Bible Baptist Church in Valley Center
 - Follow all standards as set forth in Official Rules and Regulations. These rules are on the wksawana.org website.
 - Must provide one line judge per team. All line judges must attend one of the training sessions.
- Requirements for Line Judges:
 - Line Judges may be men or women.
 - Line Judges must be active Awana leaders.

- ALL Line Judges (both Sparks and T&T) supplied by churches on April 5 are required to attend one training sessions (regardless of when they last attended training). Two regional training sessions have been set up for training:
 - 3/29 – 10:00 am – Faith Bible Baptist Church in Valley Center
 - 3/31 – 7:00 pm – Faith Bible Baptist Church in Valley Center
- “in each circle, four trained officials, who are familiar with all events, rules governing each, and how to resolve tie events, tie heats, or tie score, assist the circle director in watching for false starts, broken rules, fallen pins, interference, etc.”
- The Awana Games Coordinators (Greg and Jeff Schuessler) may reject any line judge volunteer for any reason. The church would be required to supply another trained judge.
- For questions or other assistance, please contact our Awana Game Coordinators at games@WKSAWANA.ORG.
